

Help shape the future of water in the Lower Rum River watershed!

The Lower Rum River Watershed Management Organization (LRRWMO) is hosting a workshop for watershed residents, elected officials, and city, county, and state agency staff.

We want to learn about the needs and interests of your community, desired improvements, and opportunities to work together to better manage local water resources. Your input will inform the development of the LRRWMO's 2021 Watershed Management Plan, which will guide our work through 2031.

Come learn about the LRRWMO and share your opinion!
